

Henry Young – Eastham Land Records 1650-1745

Henry Young was the youngest son of John Young and Abigail (Howland) Young. Henry was born in 1672. He was one of eleven children and he had five older brothers. There are no marriage or death records for Henry in the Eastham records. The Eastham land records indicate he died between 1703 and 1711. Henry received only limited land grants typical of most Eastham male residents in the early 1700's.

Granted to Henry Young, Samuel Doane, Samuel Higgins and Jabez Snow and their heirs a parcel of meadow on the Middle Flat of the Town Flats next to the lot of Thomas Doane, Constant Freeman and John Knowles. The dimensions indicate the parcel was about four acres. Bounds were indicated by stakes.
